What is the Leeds LINK?

The Leeds LINK is a network of people coming together to investigate Health & Social Care services in Leeds. The LINK works with a range of bodies and organisations to help resolve problems and improve services based on what members of the public want.

Why should you get involved?

There are number of benefits to becoming involved in the Leeds LINK:

- You can help your community voice their issues, ideas and concerns.
- You can get attention for neglected issues or ideas.
- You can influence those who make decisions about new or existing Health and Social Care services.
- Your own knowledge and skills can be developed through training and continuous support, allowing you to be involved to your full potential.

Choose how you want to be involved in the LINK:

There are different ways you can be involved; being a member doesn't mean attending lots of meetings or giving up lots of your time.

Please tick to show us how you would like to be involved in the LINK:

I want to receive the LINK e-bulletin

I want to participate in questionnaires and consultations on a range of issues

I want to know about events and training opportunities

I want to be involved in the LINK workgroups looking at different issues (we will let you know what the current groups are)

I want to receive the Steering Group minutes every month

You can also volunteer your time with general things such as helping with mail-outs and distributing leaflets.
